CREEKSIDE SHARING:

- The Bee Team still has honey to share and sell! See the display in the Gathering Area. Consider a sweet gift for family or friends.
- New Life Class has brown and a blue loveseats in their classroom which need to go to good homes. Let Lisa V. know if you are interested.
- A draft for a new Creekside directory is in the Gathering Area. Please confirm or correct your information. If you have family members who have not been active at Creekside and we can remove them from the directory, you may mark them off. This draft will be available during October; we hope to have new directories printed before Thanksgiving.
- We will be printing Creekside calendars again for 2023! Thanks to Larry Ford and Gary Arnold for wonderful photos to use. Calendars will be available by mid-November—stay tuned for more details.
