CREEKSIDE SHARING:

- Thank you for your donations of PB&J for CCS! We'll deliver them this week and let you know how much our donation weighed.
- Tim Morphew and Co. had a great Show and Tell last week! Ask them about trail magic and an unexpected gift.
- So far we have planted wildflowers, potatoes, and onions in our Seed to Feed gardens. Thanks to Cal and Mike who are planning and supervising. Come any Tues or Thurs between 9 and 10:30 am to volunteer.
- We will be planting container gardens on May 20 to share with our neighbors. See more information below in Coming Up section.
- The Church of the Brethren has committed to non-military support for Ukrainian families. The following donations have been approved from the Emergency Disaster Fund of the Church of the Brethren: $120,000 to Orthodox Christian Charities for families sheltering in Ukraine; $75,000 to Church World Service to support Ukrainian refugees in Moldova and surrounding countries. Thank you for your gifts and for your prayers.
